

AN OVERVIEW

HEADNOTES

Published monthly by the Dallas Bar Association, distributed to 11,000 Dallas-area attorneys.

For more than 140 years, the Dallas Bar Association has been the source that esteemed lawyers depend upon for networking opportunities, professional development, and community involvement. What began in 1873, continues today with more than 11,000 members who practice in a variety of legal niches and of all ages.

Each month, Headnotes, the official newsletter of the DBA, provides members with substantive law articles, membership news and a calendar of upcoming Continuing Legal Education programs. The DBA hosts more than 400 CLE programs each year, and Headnotes is an important tool in the publicity of these events. Survey results show that 93% of members read Headnotes.

In 1979, the Dallas Bar Association moved its headquarters to the historic Belo Mansion. And in 2003, the DBA opened the Pavilion at the Belo Mansion, a first-class expansion which accommodates more than 600 attendees for seminars, receptions and meetings. Undoubtedly, the uniqueness and convenience of the Belo Mansion, coupled with the DBA's high-caliber membership, has contributed to the enviable reputation the Dallas Bar Association has developed nationwide.

In 2017, Headnotes was recognized for its excellence by collecting two Bar Association Newsletter Awards presented by the State Bar of Texas.

Headnotes has also earned numerous APEX Awards for publication excellence.
